OFFICE NOT UP FOR ELECTION IN 2006

Candidates: Responsibilities and Liabilities

If you are considering running for public office, you will need to become familiar with the requirements of Article XXVIII to the Colorado Constitution (Campaign and Political Finance) and Title 1, Article 45, C.R.S. (Fair Campaign Practices Act). It will answer many of your questions like:

- Q: When do you officially become a candidate for public office for CPF/FCPA purposes?
- A: A person is a candidate for election if the person has publicly announced and thereafter has received a contribution or made an expenditure in support of his/her candidacy.
- Q: What forms do I file, once I become a candidate?
- A: You must file a notarized candidate affidavit with the appropriate officer within 10 days of becoming a candidate. If you are a state candidate and are accepting voluntary spending limits, the acceptance of voluntary spending limits must be filed with the candidate affidavit. For state candidates, a personal financial disclosure is due within 10 days of filing the candidate affidavit.
- Q: I'm a current office holder, but I haven't yet decided if I want to run in the next election. May I maintain a candidate committee?
- A: Yes. You are still considered a candidate while your candidate committee is open. Contribution limits will still apply, and Rule 3.1 requires that you file an amended committee registration within five days of any change.
- Q: Do I have to form a committee if I want to accept contributions?
- A: Yes. Municipal and county candidates register with their municipal or county clerk. State candidates register with the Secretary of State.
- Q: Are there filings due after the election?
- A: Yes, your candidate committee must continue to file until it terminates with a zero balance. Also, officeholders are required to annually update their personal financial disclosure due on or before the 10th of January and report all gifts and honoraria due on or before the 15th of January.
- Q: What is my personal liability as a candidate?
- A: Please read Article XXVIII to the Colorado Constitution Section 9 Duties of the secretary of state – enforcement and Section 10 Sanctions very carefully before you file as a candidate or register a candidate committee.
- NOTE: Municipal, County, Special District and School District candidates should contact their local clerks for filing forms. Candidates for state office should contact the CPF/FCPA staff at the State Elections Division.

Candidate Committees

If you are a candidate, or working with others to financially support a specific candidate, begin by checking the definition of a Candidate Committee to confirm that you meet the criteria. Next, review the following statutes and rules governing candidate committees. A candidate may have only one candidate committee at one time – in any jurisdiction. Note: Candidates who do not accept contributions, but spend their own funds must file disclosure reports itemizing all expenditures of $20 or more. Candidates that accept no contributions and make no expenditures are not required to file. You may file a voluntary report in order to provide full disclosure to the public. Call the CPF/FCPA staff at the State Elections Division whenever you need assistance.

Basic Q & A:

How do I get started? The Secretary of State's Office has assembled candidate packets that include information on qualifications, Campaign and Political Finance (CPF) guidelines and forms, sample candidate petitions, and other filing forms required by state law. These packets are available free of charge. Contact our office to receive your candidate packet.

Where do I file? Candidates for municipal offices should contact the Municipal Clerk in the city/town where they live. Candidates for county offices should contact their County Clerk and Recorder. Candidates for any office greater than a county office should contact the Elections Division of the Colorado Secretary of State for filing information. Candidates for federal offices should also contact the Federal Election Commission for information on federal filing requirements.

When do I file? There is no set filing deadline in the state of Colorado that applies to all candidates. Filing deadlines depend on:

1. When your campaign efforts officially begin under CPF/FCPA definitions.
2. The method by which you seek to get your name on the ballot, (nomination, petition, write-in).

Please refer to the election calendar for important dates relating to your candidacy.

How do I verify my status and affiliation as a registered voter? Your County Clerk and Recorder can access your voter record to notify you of your registration status, affiliation, date, etc. This information can also be accessed by the Secretary of State's office.

How do I learn more about the requirements of Campaign and Political Finance and the Fair Campaign Practices Act? The Election Division of the Secretary of State's office has developed a training manual that details the requirements under CPF/FCPA and includes filing deadlines as well as all of the forms you will need to file for your campaign. This manual is available free of charge. We also offer several training courses throughout the year on the requirements of CPF/FCPA. These training courses are conducted all over the state. Please contact the Elections Division of the Secretary of State to find out when the next training course is being conducted near you.

How do I find out what Congressional/State Senate/State House District I live in? Contact your County Clerk and Recorder. This information is available with your voter registration information.

Once I've declared my candidacy, can I change my mind? Yes. Candidates may file a letter of withdrawal with the designated election official (S.O.S., County/City/Town Clerk) any time before the election. However, in order to ensure a candidate's name is removed from the ballot and sufficient time is given for vacancy nominations, Letters of Withdrawal must be submitted prior to 68 days before the primary and 70 days before the general election. (June 1, 2006 for Primary Election; August 29, 2006 for General Election)
